Application for Admission to the Analyst Certification Program

Dear Applicant:

We welcome your application to enter the training program at the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles as a preparatory candidate. Successfully completing the first year of training will allow you to continue training as a full candidate towards certification as a Jungian analyst. The essay portions of this application provide an opportunity to let us know more about you personally as well as your professional expectations. Please be both complete and succinct in your responses. As the application process moves along, members of the admissions committee will be speaking with you directly which will give more time for expanded descriptions or explanations. We hope this is the beginning of a significant and deeply meaningful journey in your life.

Applicants are advised to carefully read the section on our website under Training Programs and then Analyst Certification Program, which outlines requirements for membership and for admission to the training program. If this is not available to you, contact our office so we will send you a copy. Website address: www.junginla.org

The application form is divided into four parts. Part I and II are relatively straightforward and objective. Part III is in essay format. It allows you to present objective facts in a subjective manner. This section of the application form is not meant to be a novella, but rather to begin to give us a "flavor" of who you are as a person. Please keep each section of Part III as concise as possible while allowing room for a response you consider authentic to your own style and personality. Part IV is the Appendix.

The appendix information is an essential part of the application form. All of its parts must be included or, where applicable, sent directly to the Institute. The appendix must include: Verification of analytical hours. Copy the blank form in the appendix, send it to your analyst(s), and have them send it back directly to the Institute.

1. Graduate School Grades. Have an official transcript of your graduate school grades sent directly to the institute.
2. License to Practice in California. Attach a photocopy of your license. If you are very close to licensing, please explain when you think you will be licensed.
3. Evidence of Professional Liability insurance.
4. Letters of Reference. Have three letters of reference sent directly to the institute.
5. Resume/Curriculum Vitae. Include a copy of your resume or curriculum vitae.

All information supplied is for use by the Admissions Committee of the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles and, if accepted, will be kept in the candidate's file for the duration of their training.

The completed application, including appendix items, must be received by the second week in March (date to be posted on the website) of the year for which an application for admission is being made. Incomplete forms will not be considered. Attach a recent photo (passport size) and include a $250 non-refundable application fee. Be sure to sign and date the completed application form.

The Admissions Committee will review the application and supporting documents in detail, and if all qualifications are met, a personal interview with the Committee will be scheduled. We wish you well in completing the application and look forward to meeting you.

I hereby make application for training at the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles. I have read and agree to the requirements and regulations for admission as stated in the Analyst Certification Program Brochure and the instructions for completing the application form. The information given in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that aptitude and suitability for analytic training cannot be fully assessed during the admission procedure. I understand that I am requesting admission as a preparatory candidate and that my aptitude and suitability for analytic training will be more fully assessed at the end of the first year at which time the Admissions Committee will make its decision regarding admission as a full candidate. I agree to make no claim against members of the C.G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles for any action taken in connection with this application including rejection for admission or discontinuance of training after it has begun.

If accepted for training at the C.G. Jung Institute, I agree to be bound by the by-laws of this organization as applicable to me, and I agree not to represent myself as a Jungian analyst until I am certified.
